

MEI 2006 Operator Trade-in Rebate Program

Less Jam More Dough

Trade in old Coin Mechs or Bill Validators and receive a $25 rebate per unit

Program Requirements:

- Available through MEI Authorized Distributor.
- Available only to US based Full Line and Amusement Operators.
- Bring your old coin mechs and bill validators to your MEI distributor, and purchase new MEI units. The units may be of any make and in any condition, and do not need to be functional; however they must be complete units.
- The new units must be replacement for existing product; units purchased on new machines do not qualify.
- Program ends on December 29, 2006. New units must be shipped by January 12, 2007 from orders placed between Nov. 6 and Dec. 29, 2006, inclusive. The rebate form must be received by Jan. 31, 2007.
- Rebate form available from your distributor or on-line from MEI. It contains the program's full requirements.

Ordering Process:

- Bring your old units to your MEI distributor, and purchase new MEI units.
- Complete the rebate form and you will receive $25 for each trade-in on a new purchase
- Your MEI distributor will confirm receipt of appropriate trade-in units by signing and initialing the rebate form.

Mail-In Certificate: MEI 2006 Operator Trade-in Rebate Program

To receive your $25 trade-in rebate per CF7512 coin manager or Series 2000 bill validator by mail:

You will receive a $25 rebate for each purchase of a new MEI CF7512 coin manager when trading in another coin mech. The trade-in unit can be any brand of vending coin mech in any condition.

You will receive a $25 rebate for each purchase of a new MEI VN2500 or AE2400 bill validator when trading in another bill validator. The trade-in unit can be any brand of vending or amusement bill validator in any condition.

You will receive a $25 rebate for each purchase of a new MEI AE2600, VN2500 or AE2400 bill validator when trading in another bill validator that would accept up to a $20. The trade-in unit can be any brand of vending or amusement bill validator in any condition.

You will receive a $25 rebate for each purchase of a new MEI AE2800, AE2600, VN2500 or AE2400 bill validator when trading in another bill validator that would accept up to a $100. The trade-in unit can be any brand of vending or amusement bill validator in any condition.

You must meet the following terms to qualify for a rebate:

- This completed form must accompany your rebate request and it must be received by January 31, 2007.
- Must be a US based full line vending or amusement operator.
- The products must be purchased between November 6, 2006 and December 29, 2006 from an MEI Authorized Distributor. The new products must be replacements for existing products; units purchased on new machines do not qualify.
- The MEI Authorized Distributor will verify they have received the trade-in units when the new units were ordered; that the trade-in units are appropriate for the trade-in; and that the trade-in units are complete.
- You must fill in the rebate form completely. This will include a list of the new products purchased, the prices paid and their serial numbers. For the corresponding trade-in units you must list manufacturer, model and serial number.
- Please allow 8-10 weeks for delivery of rebate check.
- You may submit only one rebate request per operator, but the number of trade-in rebates per operator is not limited. If extra space is needed or if purchases are made at different times or from varying distributors just include extra copies of the request list.
- You must have an invoice(s) accompanying this form as proof of purchase of the new products from an MEI Authorized Distributor.
- If the products are returned, you must notify MEI and repay to MEI the corresponding rebate at the same time.
- Requests received from groups, clubs or organizations will not be honored.
- Not responsible for lost or late rebate requests.
